

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BCA TO ADMINISTER TEAM CANADA FUND

March 10, 2005 Victoria, B.C. Canada – Ken Marchtaler, Western Canada Director for the World Organization of Martial Arts Athletes (WOMAA), announced today that Braefoot Community Association (BCA) will administer the WOMAA Team Canada Fund for 2005. The Team will compete at the WOMAA World Martial Games VI in Rosenheim, Germany July 15, 16 & 17, 2005.

“I am pleased that Braefoot Community Association has agreed to administer the fundraising activities for 2005 Team Canada”, says Ken Marchtaler, WOMAA Western Canada Director, “This not only makes our fundraising activities more credible, but Braefoot holds a federal charitable license which may allow our supporters to claim their donations for income tax purposes. We are proud to have a Braefoot as a partner.”

The World Organization of Martial Arts Athletes (WOMAA) was founded in 1998 to promote Martial Arts Sporting competitions around the world. Since that time WOMAA has expanded to include tournament sanctioning as well as an International Promoters Circuit (IPC). Further information about WOMAA and Team Canada can be obtained by visiting the Team Canada website at www.womaacanada.com.

The Braefoot Community Association was established in 1986. Their goal is to provide the youth and families of the Victoria community with a place to learn, grow and have fun. The Association has taken on the responsibility of administering the WOMAA Team Canada operating fund as well as provide administrative support for the 2005 team. Further information on Braefoot can be obtained by visiting the Braefoot Community Association website at www.braefoot.ca.
