

CNMAA Membership

There are a number of levels at which you can become a CNMAA Member:

Active Members (Voting)

Active Members are Martial Arts School owners. Martial Arts Schools are the breeding grounds of our current and future martial arts athletes, coaches, judges, referees and officials. Becoming a CNMAA Active Member ensures your voice in the future of martial arts in Canada and throughout the world.

Active National Members (Non-Voting)

Active National Members are organizations that promote disciplines, styles and various aspects of martial arts sports. They play a significant role in the development of martial art sport and promotion of their particular areas of interest. Becoming a CNMAA Active National Member will ensure that you are part of the evolution of martial art sport and sport for all.

Supporting Members (Non-Voting)

Supporting Members are those who have an interest in what is going on within CNMAA. This includes suppliers, organizations, martial arts instructors and national athletes.

CNMAA Network

CNMAA is part of a globe-spanning network of Martial Arts and Sport for All organizations.

True Sport Lives Here!

TEAM CANADA

Canadian National Martial Arts Association

Greetings

Welcome to the family of the Canadian National Martial Arts Association (CNMAA). As a leading national martial arts association, we are in the privileged position to bring organization, strength, evolution and community to your athletes, members and customers through association.

CNMAA provides its members with unique sport development opportunities, practical support programs, events, education and the opportunity to network with the international sport community at the highest of levels.

We hope that you and your organization will become part of the growing CNMAA family. Together we are aiming for a united martial arts world.

Kenneth Marchtaler
CNMAA President

CNMAA Mission

The Canadian National Martial Arts Association's objective is the nation-wide promotion of Martial Art Sport for All, through physical activity, competition and association.

The Society's objective is fulfilled in particular by means of the following:

- By promoting ethics, education of youth, the spirit of fair play and the banning of violence in martial arts sport.
- By encouraging and supporting the promotion of women in martial art sport at all levels and the principle of equality of men and women.
- By helping to promote and preserve traditional cultures in martial art sport through programs, events, publications and research.
- Through the organization of fund raising activities to generate the necessary resources for CNMAA's own operations
- Through the establishment and recognition of Regional, Provincial and /or National bodies under the umbrella of CNMAA.
- Through offering of educational and training programs in Martial Art Sport for All and the recognition and support for regional conferences and national seminars in cooperation with promoting institutions.
- Through the cooperation with National institutions and the establishment of alliances.
